U.S. Seasonal Drought Outlook

Drought Tendency During the Valid Period

Valid for July 1 - September 30, 2026
Released June 30, 2026

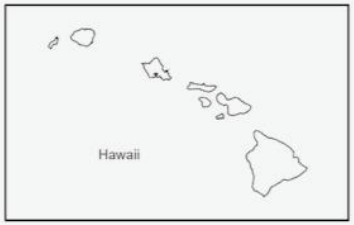

Depicts large-scale trends based on subjectively derived probabilities guided by short- and long-range statistical and dynamical forecasts. Use caution for applications that can be affected by short lived events. "Ongoing" drought areas are based on the U.S. Drought Monitor areas (intensities of D1 to D4).

NOTE: The tan areas imply at least a 1-category improvement in the Drought Monitor intensity levels by the end of the period, although drought will remain. The green areas imply drought removal by the end of the period (D0 or none).

- Drought persists
- Drought remains, but improves
- Drought removal likely
- Drought development likely
- No drought

2026 Summer Lake Treatment

- Pre-Season Whole Lake Aquatic Plant Survey took place on 6/02/2026.
- The survey results tell us where to treat, and we only treat where we find invasive plants.
- The first lake treatment took place on June 29th.
- Treated approximately 20 acres on the west side of the north lake.
- Targeted Eurasian Water Milfoil at nine (9) sites.

NOTE: Restrictions are from the treatment date OK = Does not apply

Triclopyr & 2, 4-D: Do not use treated water for irrigation for the posted amount of time after application. As an alternative to waiting the number of specified days, treated water may be used for irrigation once the concentration level in the treatment area is determined to be safe as determined by laboratory analysis or approximately 3 weeks after treatment.

The chemicals used for Aquatic Nuisance Control are registered by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Michigan Department of Agriculture. The potential for damage to fish and other non-target organisms is minimal provided that the product is used as directed on the product label and the permit. To minimize the possible effects on health and the environment, the treated water is restricted for the above purposes.
